1. Scope of Our Engagement: This will confirm the terms of our recent conversation during which Client has agreed to engage the services of Cambridge Investment Research Advisors, Inc. ("CIRA"), a registered investment adviser, and its investment advisor representative ("IAR"), whose name appears on the signature page below, to provide certain financial planning services. These services will be selected by Client and Client's IAR from the choices listed on Schedule A, the terms of which are incorporated into this agreement ("Agreement"). These services may include such things as developing a full financial plan, portfolio evaluation, educational funding planning, retirement planning, tax projections and planning, risk management, including a review of insurance coverage (which will generally exclude property and casualty insurance), planning for special needs family members, negotiation of the purchase of substantial assets, and budgeting. IAR will provide written or verbal recommendations, depending on the services selected and mutually agreed to by Client. If Client chooses to have a full financial plan, it will be written and may encompass such things as net worth statement, cash flow projections, income tax projections, retirement planning, estate planning, educational funding, special healthcare needs funding, recommendations regarding insurance coverage (generally excluding property and casualty insurance, unless Client's IAR is licensed to and does sell these products), and investment recommendations.

2. Client Responsibilities: The services, plans, and recommendations will be based on the accuracy of the written and oral information and data provided by Client and Client's active participation in the process. The plan or recommendations developed will include recommendations designed to help Client achieve Client's personal goals and objectives. Client may accept or reject any or all of the recommendations. Therefore, Clients are urged to ensure all information and data provided by Client or Client's outside advisors is accurate and that Client provides full and complete answers to IAR's requests for personal information. Otherwise, the conclusions drawn and the recommendations made may not be suited to Client's actual personal situation.

3. Information and Documents Client Will Provide: With Client's permission, IAR may coordinate with Client's attorney, accountant, or other advisors to collect information related to Client's financial or other personal issues. CIRA and IAR will not share this information or the information Client provides to CIRA directly with anyone unless mutually agreed upon and the information sharing is necessary to achieve Client's objectives under this Agreement, or as may be required by law.

4. What Client Will Pay Us: CIRA and IAR will provide the services Client selects from the choices included on Schedule A in return for timely and full payment of the financial planning fee, as specifically described on Schedule A and approved by Client, as evidenced by Client's signature below. These fees do not cover expenses incurred by Client in connection with Client's use of other advisors, such as Client's attorney or accountant, in connection with this process.

5. Important Considerations: Client's IAR may be a Registered Representative of Cambridge Investment Research, Inc. ("Cambridge"), which is an affiliated broker-dealer registered with the Securities Exchange Commission ("SEC") and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). As such, Client's IAR as a Registered Representative is capable of effecting on Client's behalf transactions in various securities products, including stocks, bonds, mutual funds, variable annuities, and variable life insurance. However, Client is always free to execute securities transactions and purchase insurance products through someone other than Client's IAR. If Client chooses to purchase securities products through Client's IAR in the capacity as a Registered Representative, then all such transactions will be placed through Cambridge. In this event, Cambridge and Client's Registered Representative will receive compensation, including commissions and possible 12b-1 fees normally paid in connection with the sale of securities products. If Client elects to purchase insurance products through Client's IAR, Client's IAR will receive commissions normally paid in connection with these products in a separate capacity as a licensed life agent. This compensation will be in addition to the fees Client will pay for financial planning or investment advice under this Agreement.

If the IAR designated on this Agreement is no longer affiliated with CIRA, or is no longer serving as IAR to Client due to retirement, disability, or death, and Client wishes to retain the advisory services from CIRA pursuant to this Agreement, Client may allow CIRA to appoint a new IAR for Client.

6. Services Not Provided: CIRA and IAR do not provide legal advice or prepare legal documents, such as wills and trusts. Client must retain an attorney to provide legal advice and services. Charges for these services will be in addition to the charges Client will pay CIRA under this Agreement.

CIRA and IAR do not provide accounting advice and do not prepare income, gift, estate tax, or other such tax returns as part of our financial planning services. Client should retain a separate accountant or accountancy firm to provide these services. In some cases Client's IAR may have an accounting practice separate and apart from their affiliation with CIRA or Cambridge. In that situation Client's IAR may offer to provide these services through his/her separate accounting practice. Charges for these services will be in addition to the charges Client will pay CIRA under this Agreement.

The services under this Agreement do not include CIRA or IAR providing investment management or supervision of investment accounts on behalf of Client. In the event that Client desires such investment management or supervision services, Client will be required to execute a separate agreement and may pay a fee in addition to the fees paid by Client to CIRA and IAR under this Agreement.

7. ERISA Accounts: If the services under this Agreement involve an account that is maintained on behalf of a plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), the Pension Protection Act of 2006, or similar government regulation, CIRA acknowledges that when CIRA or IAR provides advice about securities held in the ERISA account on a regular basis pursuant to this Agreement that this advice would constitute investment advice to a retirement plan or to retirement plan assets for compensation, and therefore, CIRA would be a "fiduciary" as such term is defined under Section 3(21)(A)(ii) of ERISA. CIRA will act in good faith and with the degree of diligence, care, and skill that a prudent person rendering similar services would exercise under similar circumstances in providing such fiduciary services. CIRA is not an "investment manager" as defined in Section 3(38) of ERISA and does not have the power to manage, acquire, or dispose of any plan assets, and is not the "Administrator" of Client's retirement plan as defined in ERISA.

8. Disclosure of Important Information: The Client acknowledges receipt of required disclosure documents including but not limited to Part 2A (Firm Brochure) and Part 2B (Supplemental Brochure), as required by the SEC, either before or at the time of signing an advisory agreement with CIRA. If Client has received other services by CIRA and IAR these disclosure brochures may have previously been provided in which will constitute appropriate delivery.

CIRA does not accept prepayment of services more than $1,200 for more than six (6) months in advance. While services are generally provided within 90 days we understand that special circumstance can arise that would delay this delivery. If prepaid services have not been delivered within six (6) months CIRA will refund prepaid fees to the Client. If Client is still interested in such services by CIRA and IAR a new Agreement can be entered into.

9. Termination of Engagement: This Agreement shall continue in effect until terminated by either party (per process further explained in this section) or one-time services have been provided and compensation for services have been received. Client, CIRA, or IAR may terminate this Agreement at any time by notifying the non-terminating party in writing of the intent to terminate the Agreement at least thirty (30) days before the date the Agreement is to terminate. If the appropriate disclosure statements were not delivered to the Client, such Client has the right to terminate the contract without penalty within five (5) days after entering into the contract. CIRA will refund any fees Client paid in advance as a retainer to secure the services Client selected on Schedule A. If Client, CIRA, or IAR terminates the Agreement at any other time upon thirty (30) days prior written notice, CIRA will refund any fees Client has paid less any unearned fees for the services already rendered. If Client has paid no fees in advance, any unpaid fees for services rendered will be due and paid by Client on the date of termination.

10. Confidential Relationship: All information, recommendations, and advice furnished by CIRA or its IAR to Client under this Agreement shall be regarded as confidential by Client. CIRA and its IAR agree to keep in strict confidence all information concerning the affairs of Client. CIRA, and its affiliated entities, is committed to protecting Client's confidential information. CIRA holds in confidence all information it receives from Client, including personal information it collects from Client or receives from other entities in connection with any of the financial or investment management services it provides. CIRA also requires entities with whom it deals to restrict use of Client's information. A complete privacy statement concerning CIRA's and its affiliated entities' privacy policy is available upon request. Client may obtain a copy of the privacy policy in person from Client's IAR, through written request delivered to Cambridge Investment Research, Inc. Privacy Statement, 1776 Pleasant Plain Rd., Fairfield, IA 52556, or simply by calling Cambridge at 800-777-6080.

11. Pre-Dispute Arbitration and Disclosure Agreement:

The following disclosure is required by various regulatory bodies, but should not limit the applicability of the following arbitration provision to or in any claim or controversy which may arise between you and Cambridge. This Agreement contains a predispute arbitration agreement, the parties agree as follows:

- a. All parties to this Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- b. Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- c. The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements, and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- d. The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least twenty (20) days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
- e. The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- f. The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- g. The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, are hereby incorporated into this Agreement.
- h. Pre-arbitration discovery is generally more limited than and different from court proceedings.
- i. Any party's right to appeal or seek modifications of rulings of the arbitrators is strictly limited.
- j. The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court. If at the time a demand for arbitration is made, or an election or notice of intention to arbitrate is served, the claims sought to be arbitrated would have been barred by the relevant statute of limitations or other time bar. Any party to this Agreement may assert the limitations as a bar to the arbitration by applying to any court of competent jurisdiction, and the parties expressly agree that any issues relating to the application of a statute of limitations or other time bar, are referable to such a court. The failure to assert such bar by application to a court, however, shall not preclude its assertion before the arbitrators. This agreement to arbitrate does not constitute a waiver of the right to seek a judicial forum where such waiver would be void under the federal securities laws.
- k. The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, are hereby incorporated into this Agreement.
- l. The award of the arbitrators or of the majority of them shall be final, and judgment upon the award rendered may be entered in any court, state or federal, having jurisdiction.
- m. No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any predispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class action who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until:
  1. the class certification is denied; or
  2. the class is decertified; or
  3. the client is excluded from the class by the court.

Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein. You agree, and in consideration of Cambridge carrying an account for you, Cambridge agrees, that all controversies which may arise between us, including any dispute involving Cambridge's present or former agents, employees, officers, and directors and including, but not limited to, those involving transactions in any account you have individually or jointly with or on behalf of another party at Cambridge, including those in which you have a beneficial interest, or the construction, performance, or breach of this or any other agreement between us, whether entered into prior, on, or subsequent to the date hereof, shall be fully and finally determined by binding arbitration conducted before, and only before, the arbitration panel set up by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) in accordance with its arbitration procedures. Any arbitration under this Agreement will be conducted pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act and the laws of the state of Iowa.

- A copy of this arbitration agreement is hereby given to you, who shall acknowledge receipt thereof on this Agreement.
- If you file a complaint in court against Cambridge that contains claims that are subject to arbitration pursuant to this arbitration agreement, Cambridge may seek to compel arbitration of the claims that are subject to arbitration. If Cambridge seeks to compel arbitration of such claims, Cambridge must agree to arbitrate all of the claims contained in the complaint if you so request. If Cambridge seeks to compel arbitration of the claims you have filed in court that are subject to arbitration, you expressly agree to reimburse all fees, costs, and expenses incurred by Cambridge to enforce the arbitration provisions of this Agreement unless FINRA arbitration procedures permit the claim to be filed in court or enforcement of this provision would limit or contradict FINRA arbitration procedures.

By signing the Financial Planning Engagement Form, you acknowledge that you are aware that this agreement contains a binding arbitration provision that may be enforced by the parties.

12. Miscellaneous Items

Assignment – This Agreement may not be assigned by CIRA to another registered investment adviser without Client's written consent.

Governing Law – This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the state of Iowa, without giving effect to the conflicts of law provisions thereof, and applicable provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

Effectiveness – Our engagement will not commence until this Agreement is accepted by CIRA, as evidenced by the signature of our authorized corporate signatory below.

Entire Agreement – This Agreement is our final agreement with respect to the engagement described above and on Schedule A, supersedes all prior agreements between us regarding this engagement, and may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by all parties hereto.

Payment Options and Fee Debit Authorization

The following payment options for financial planning fees are available to clients:

Option 1) Client may pay financial planning fees by personal check made payable to Cambridge Investment Research, Inc. We cannot accept cash and generally do not accept cash equivalents, such as cashier's checks and money orders, because of federal statutes intended to combat money laundering.

Option 2) Clients may choose to have financial planning fees debited from a checking or savings account. A Payment Authorization Form must be completed and signed by the client(s) to facilitate debit.

Option 3) Many clients elect to have their fees automatically withheld from investment management non-qualified accounts held at platforms approved for such fee debit payments. By initialing the bottom of the page, Client authorizes Cambridge to automatically deduct the fees for the financial planning services from the account as indicated below. Client represents that all persons who are joint owners of this account have executed this Agreement. Client may terminate this automatic fee deduction at any time by providing written notice to CIRA at our address indicated under Section 9 above. This will not terminate Client's obligation to pay any unpaid fees.

Option 4) Other payment options are available. Discuss with your IAR. A Payment Authorization Form may be needed by the client(s) to facilitate this payment option.
